Half-Day Tour to Coptic Cairo from Airport

Take advantage of your stopover to experience the ancient Old Cairo neighborhood as you begin your Cairo Coptic Tour straight from the airport. Become acquainted with Cairo Top Tours' knowledgeable Egyptologist guide, who will accompany you on all of your trip.

You will begin an amazing journey to one of Cairo Coptic's most prestigious tourist destinations: the Church of the Martyrs Sergius and Sergius Wachs, an old church constructed over the location where the Holy Family rested during the escape. Constructed in the fourth century, the church might have been finished in the fifth. Around 750, during Marwan II's rule, it was destroyed by fire during the Fire of Fustat. Although it has undergone numerous reconstructions and restorations throughout the Middle Ages, it was last refurbished in the eighth century and is still regarded as an example of an early Coptic church.

The second step is to visit Ben Ezra Synagogue, an Egyptian synagogue in the Fustat area (the old Egyptian quarter). It is regarded as one of the biggest and most significant synagogues, particularly because the Egyptian government maintains it, restores it, and makes it a monument and a tourist destination. Its library has the most priceless Jewish books and periodicals that document the history of the Jewish community in Egypt.

After that, the journey in Cairo will transport you back to the era of the ancient pharaohs. You will begin with a unique tour of Coptic Cairo, where you will discover Built atop two of the old towers of the Roman stronghold (Fort Babylon), which Emperor Trajan constructed in the second century AD, the Hanging Church obtained its name.

Our knowledgeable guide will return you to Cairo International Airport at the conclusion of your trip.
