Day Trip To Cairo from Sharm El Sheikh by bus

As soon as your bus from Sharm El Sheikh arrives, we will wait to take you in a private car to the Giza Pyramids site with your own tour guide. From there, we will begin your incredible bus excursion to Cairo.

Your day begins with an impressive visit to the Egyptian Museum, which is one of the first museums in the world to be established as a public museum; unlike the museums that preceded it, the museum houses more than 180,000 objects, the most important of which are the archaeological collections found in the tombs of the kings and royal entourage of the Middle Dynasty at Dahshur in 1894, and the museum now houses the largest archaeological collection in the world, expressing all stages of ancient Egyptian history. In 1983, the museum building was registered as an archaeological building of unique architectural value. In August 2006, the major development of the museum was carried out, with the aim of turning it into a scientific and cultural destination, by establishing a cultural center and a commercial administrative annex on the west side of the museum in place of the demolished informal settlements.

Your second adventure will be to one of the wonders of the world, the Pyramids of Giza, where you can see The Great Pyramid, the Pyramid of Khafre, the Pyramid of Menkaure, and related complexes, along with the Great Sphinx, are all part of the Tomb of Giza, an archeological site in Egypt. Between around 2600 and 2500 BC, during the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom in ancient Egypt, these monuments were constructed. Additionally, there are a number of temples, tombs, and the remnants of a workers' settlement at the location.

After that, you will have a very delicious lunch in a local restaurant in Cairo.

Our representative will transfer you in a modern, air-conditioned car to take the bus back to Sharm El Sheikh.
