Experience the awe of ancient Egypt on the magical trip from Alexandria Port to the pyramids of Giza and the Egyptian National Museum of Civilization. A guided visit, this day tour breathes a fine array of history, culture, and breathtaking views; thrusting directly into Egypt's glorious antiquity.

Tour the Iconic Giza Pyramids

The adventure starts with a trip to the Giza Pyramids. Recognized among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, they stand with great conviction. Be impressed by even grander shows of Khufu's Great Pyramid and those of Khafre and Menkaure. Gaze upon the Great Sphinx as the silent guardian of the pyramids and ponder on the engineering marvels that withstand the test of time for over 4,500 years.

Extra options for those most daring among you include camel rides or entering the interior of a pyramid to know more about ancient Egyptian life.

National Museum of Egyptian Civilization

Later, learn about the ever-developing heritage of Egypt at the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC). The modern museum hosts thousands of artifacts from different ages from the prehistoric period to modern times. The Royal Mummies Hall is a focal point, where the extremely well-preserved remains of few powerful pharaohs of Egypt are displayed: Ramses II, Queen Hatshepsut, and many others.

From your guide, hear expert comments and learn fascinating facts about the ancient Egyptians, their customs, and the gifts they made to civilization.

A Taste of Authentic Egyptian Cuisine

Lunch shall be taken alongside the route at a prestigious local restaurant for classic Egyptian fare. This meal presents one option for customers to pause and reflect on the majestic sights they have explored.

Visiting the pyramids in Giza

Upon the arrival in Cairo, the first site to be visited is the great pyramids in Giza, one of the wonders of the ancient world: the three great pyramids:

The Pyramid of Khufu (Great Pyramid): A colossal building beyond imagination, this great pyramid is the largest and oldest among the three.

The Pyramid of Khefren: Retains its limestone casing at the top.

The Pyramid of Menkaure: Still the smallest, but by no means the least interesting of the three.

The Great Sphinx welcomes you again: This mythical statue, with the body of a lion and the head of a pharaoh, has guarded the pyramids for over 4,500 years. If time permits, optional extra activities include a short camel ride in the desert or entering one or more of the pyramids (optional and subject to extra charges).

Lunch at a Local Restaurant

After visiting the pyramids, a traditional Egyptian lunch is waiting for you in a nice local restaurant in the heart of Cairo. Taste the local food for an authentic flavor, enhancing the whole experience of this tour.

Tour of the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization

Off to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC), which presents the history of Egypt, from prehistoric to modern times, amazing for any visitor; this is yet another highlight. The great collection displays thousands of artifacts deemed to speak for Pharaonic, Greco-Roman, Coptic, and Islamic influence.

Another one of the chief attractions, there is the Royal Mummies Hall, which is like a home for the well-preserved bodies of ancient rulers Ramses II and queen Hatshepsut-the guide will dish you some interesting stories about these two and interweave these stories with exhibits and the timeline of Egypt.

Returning to Alexandria Port

This ends the complete day with plenty of sightseeing on the beautiful land of Egypt, and you are escorted back to Alexandria Port for your cruise.

The Giza Pyramids and National Museum tour from the Alexandria Port combine history, culture, and adventure for an experience that cannot be forgotten in Egypt.

What are the most famous drinks in Egypt?

One of the most famous drinks in Egypt is mint tea, which is typically served hot and is an integral part of the Egyptian hospitality experience. Coffee is also highly popular, whether it's traditional Arabic coffee or espresso. Additionally, many people in Egypt prefer drinking cold water to cool off during hot days.
