Day 1 :Arrive to Cairo

Welcome to Egypt. When you arrive at Cairo International Airport, our team will be waiting for your flight to land to assist you in having smooth and easy measures to complete your procedure of arrival. Once you finish it, your car will be waiting for you to transfer you to your hotel to relax after your long flight time. Enjoy your welcome drink upon your arrival at the hotel.

If you have arrived early, you can have the opportunity to add one of the optional tours, like a sound and light show, to your day. The sound and light show is one of the unique shows in the world that narrates the story of each pyramid and what happened to the statue of the Great Sphinx with the best modernist technologies of sound and light.

Day2: Explore the wonders of the Giza pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara

Get ready for an unforgettable day with your tour of the Cairo and Giza governorates. After having your breakfast, your tour guide and private car will be ready to start your adventure for today and for the upcoming years. You will start your day in Giza governorate, where you see the great artifacts of the Giza Necropolis, seeing the three Giza pyramids, which are one of the wonders of the ancient world.

When you see it you will be amazed by how huge these constructions are, and how these people managed to build these genius pyramids as royal tombs for the kings of Khufu, Chephren, and Menkaure. Scientists and archeologists believe that each summit of the pyramid is aligned with a star in the sky.

You can have one of the enjoyable optional activities, a camel ride around the Giza pyramids, where you will be able to see more pyramids and have fascinating pictures.

After this, you will see the Great Sphinx, which is a large statue carved from one stone of limestone. Some historians believe that the statue of the Sphinx is owned by King Chephren, one of the owners of the pyramids. Then you move to see the valley temple, which is owned by King Chephren too, the temple has one of the most unique pharaonic designs. The temple consists of granite-covered limestone. Concerning the floors, it is covered with the Alabaster stone.

Our next stop will be Saqqara, which includes the oldest tombs in history. The name of Saqqara is derived from the name of the god of the cemetery, Sucre. Saqqara embraces pyramids, temples, and the famous tombs of Serapeum. It was certified a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1979 for what exists from great artifacts and possessions of the famous Egyptian kings. One of the most significant is the pyramid of Djoser, which is the first attempt of the idea of building with stone. The archeologists and historians from around the world care and study the site of Saqqara carefully for the treasures inside it.

Our first fascinating stop is a place that will take you to see the incredible statue of King Ramses II. You will see Memphis, or the city of the white wall which was built by King Narmer in 3200 B.C. It was the capital of old Egypt; the ancient Egyptians called it "Men-Nefr," and then the Greeks drove it to Memphis.

After seeing all of these significant sites, you will be transferred back to your hotel to relax

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3 : Enjoy the Alexandria visit

Be ready in the morning to leave Cairo and travel to Alexandria. The journey between Alexandria and Cairo takes almost two and a half hours, and it is a unique city on the Mediterranean Sea. The city has witnessed many important events and many ruling kingdoms. When you reach Alexandria, you will know in one second by seeing the beautiful view of the blue-colored water and the fresh air. Then start exploring it by seeing

The first visit will be for the Pompey pillar: This column was formed by the Alexandrians from the granite stone in the sanctuary of the Temple of Serapeum in honor of Emperor Diocletian (248-305 AD). The reason for this fascinating pillar is to thank the emperor for redistributing the quota of wheat , on the top of the base of the column we find an inscribed Greek inscription that you can see during the reflection of sun x-ray on it.

After seeing this, you will be transferred to see the Citadel of Qaitbay.

The citadel was built on the borders of the ancient island of Pharos, in the same place as the ancient lighthouse of Alexandria. The citadel was built due to the threat from the Ottoman empire, Mamluk Sultan Qunsuwa al-Ghuri weaponized it which has increased it's importance. Through ages, the different rulers and empires in Egypt cared and developed the citadel to protect Egypt from any threat. Now, It is one of the most beautiful citadel on the Sea.

Then, Let's discover the enchanting catacombs of Kom El Shoqqafa , It is one of the world wonders of the middle ages. The catacombs consist of catacombs, statues and artifacts pieces that reflects the traditions of the Egyptian funeral rituals. It is not just a collection of tombs, but a testament to the finest examples of funerary architecture, where Pharaonic and Roman art are intertwined. The complexity of the layout and the vastness of the space almost makes you forget that it is a funerary cemetery.

Our next step will be the bibliotheca of Alexandria: It was built by Alexander the Great's successors more than 2,000 years ago to house the largest collection of books in the ancient world, about 700,000. It is one of the largest places for research libraries in Alexandria, Egypt and the world. Historians believe that Ptolemy II "Philadelphus" is the real founder for the library, he brought in scholars from the Greek world and provided books from various sources.

Finally, enjoy the best walk on Alexandria corniche and smell the fresh air with a great view of Stanley bridge.

Finally, back to Cairo and rest in your hotel

Day 4 : Tour to Egyptian Museum, Citadel and Khan El Khalili

Let's go in an exceptional adventure when you will be able to see the Old Cairo. Your tour will start after enjoying your breakfast, meet your tour guide who will lead you through the gems of Cairo to see :

The Egyptian Museum: It is one of the largest museums in the Middle East and the world. The Museum embraces a large number of artifacts that date back to Egyptian pharaonic history. The museum includes unique pieces that will amaze you when you see it like the Golden mask and the treasure of the great King Tutankhamun. In addition, you will see enchanting jewels of the Egyptian kings and queens. The museum also embraces pieces that date back to the Greek and Roman periods. When you visit the Museum, you need days and days to watch all the unique pieces and the treasures inside the museum and its parts.

Our next step is to have the experience of having an oriental lunch at one of the high-quality restaurants. After finishing your meal, be ready to see Cairo from a high point.

Visit the citadel of Salah El Din, one of the greatest citadels in Egypt and the Islamic country. Its location on a hill near Mokattam mountain gives it unforgettable scenes of all of Cairo. It was the headquarters for ruling Egypt until it had relocated to the fascinating palace of Abdeen. Now, it's time to discover the gem inside the citadel, which is Muhammed Ali's Bahsha Mosque. The mosque is known as an Alabaster Mosque because its walls inside and outside are covered with the beautiful stones of alabaster.

Let's swim between the waves of vintage life when you see Khan El Khalili's market. One of the oldest markets in Egypt, more than six hundred years. The beauty of the place is inspiring for the greatest authors and writers, such as Naguib Mahfouz and many other great authors. It includes many stores, and cafes that make it the best to spend your time and get souvenirs for your family and friends.

Finally, get back to your hotel to rest after your long tour.
