You can revel in the pleasure of strolling down Al-Muizz Li-Din Allah Al-Fatimi Street, which extends for 4,800 meters. The street contains 212 Islamic heritage monuments that wonderfully integrate Egyptian, Ottoman, Andalusian and Byzantine styles into Egyptian architecture with their mosques, fountains, Quran schools, takayas, and antique houses along the streets. The street is filled with folk bands, singers, and oud players, giving you the impression that you are in the middle of a large folk music festival.

Not to forget the tanoura shows and street parades that march along the street all night long. It is indeed a joyous setting. Visit Fatimid Cairo and Al Muizz Li Din Allah Street to admire the ancient Fatimid era structures. You can also check out its oldest Market in the Middle East, Khan El-Khalili which boasts of some of the finest stone and antique collections you will ever witness.

Al-Muizz Li-Din Allah Al-Fatimi Street or Al-A'zam Street as it is referred is famous for the Great Street, the old Islamic Cairo district, as it was transformed into a grand open-air museum of stunning Islamic architecture and Art.

Al-Muizz Street was built along with the city of Cairo in Egypt during the Fatimid period. It served as the city's political and religious hub and split the city in two almost equal halves.

Tour to Moez Street from Airport

Our representatives will be waiting for your arrival at the airport so that we can bring you to Al-Muizz Street to begin your tour. You do not need to worry about any transportation. The Al Moez Street is the oldest street in all of Egypt, over 1000 years old, while also possessing a unique collection of Islamic artifacts and monuments throughout the entire ancient street.

The restoration of Al Moez Street was funded by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) through the Historic Cairo Project to safeguard the landmarks of historic Cairo that faced damage due to the earthquake in 1992. The restoration work was divided into four phases that included the restoration of 143 registered monuments.

After its development and the restriction of movement to pedestrians, Al-Muizz Street has become a destination for lovers of Islamic antiquities and photography enthusiasts, and a place of pilgrimage for all age groups, from children and adults, both locals and expatriates, who have inhaled the fragrance of history, its grandeur and splendor.

Al-Moez Street remains one of the most prominent tourist destinations for people to enjoy the spirit of the past and take souvenir photos that increase the depth and strength of the relationship between visitors and each other, as well as their relationship with this luxurious tourist walkway studded with unique architectural artefacts. Finally, we will return you to your accommodation in Cairo or Giza or even to the airport again.
