History is not only told in books, nor is it told solely by museum collections, nor is it explored solely by routine, traditional visits to specific locations. There are streets and alleys that embody hidden gems, exuding the fragrance of time and bearing within them the features of ancient civilizations.

Book your cultural tours in Cairo. We can help you with all of your tours. Plus, our collection of tours and daily activities will help you enjoy the best Cairo has to offer. See classic landmarks on a guided tour.

Enjoy our tours by visiting this palace. Every corner of the palace, from its walls to its walls, exudes the fragrance of creativity. Paintings by French artists depict war scenes and Egyptian military uniforms throughout the ages, making for a rich and engaging tour of the museum's halls. Also on display are a collection of photographs of the royal family and a photo of King Farouk's royal wedding.

The palace contains five grand halls for celebrations, each housing 100 masterpieces of international art. It also contains halls, lounges, and a theater with hundreds of gilded chairs. It also includes curtained-off areas for women, called the "harem," a name given to the area forbidden to unrelated men.

Half Day Tour To Abdeen Palace in Cairo from Airport

After being met at the airport by your Cairo Top Tours tour leader, you will begin your transit tour with a Cairo Stopover Transit Tour, where you will join your tour guide. After that, you'll be taken to one of the most breathtaking locations in the heart of Cairo.

The palace consists of two floors. The first floor houses the harem and the selamluk, while the ground floor contains the palace garden, a pharmacy for rare medicines, the royal printing house, and King Farouk's office. The Muhammad Ali Hall is the largest and most luxurious hall in Abdeen Palace. The palace also includes several halls called the White, Red, and Green halls, which were used to receive official delegations during their visits to Egypt.

From the walls to the ceilings, the castle is filled with the aroma of creation. A tour of the museum's rooms is made rich and interesting by the artistic paintings created by French painters that portray battle situations and Egyptian military costumes throughout history. A picture of King Farouk's royal wedding and a number of pictures of the royal family are also included.

The palace contains five large celebration halls, each housing 100 masterpieces of international art. It also includes halls, lounges, and a theater with hundreds of gilded chairs. There are also curtained areas for women, known as the "harem," a term given to the area forbidden to unrelated men.

After that, you will be transferred back to Cairo Airport after enjoying the palace and taking photos.
