Tour to Cairo's Tallest Tower

Despite the capital's hustle and bustle, this situation may seem more different if you look at it from another angle. This angle may be from the top of the "Cairo Tower," which is often referred to as a meeting place for loved ones or tourist visits. However, the truth is that Cairo has its own charm from atop this tower with its distinctive design and a wider angle from which you can see the features of Al-Muizz's Cairo as you have never seen it before.

From the top of the Cairo Tower, you can document with your lens the beauty of the capital and the beauty of the different areas in the governorates of Cairo and Giza, most notably the Opera, the Nile Corniche, Al-Ahly Club, the Citadel, Zamalek, Tahrir Square, the various historical buildings, and all the landmarks of Cairo and Giza.

The tower receives its visitors daily from nine in the morning until twelve at night, and the best times to visit are from before sunset until after, so that you can enjoy seeing Cairo during the day, then at sunset, and then at night.

The Cairo Tower was the tallest tower in Africa for decades and is still the tallest in North Africa today. It is 43 metres higher than the Great Pyramid. It consists of 16 floors. It takes about 45 seconds to reach the top of the panorama. It has a tourist restaurant on a rotating platform that rotates with the restaurant's patrons to see Cairo's landmarks from all sides, such as the pyramids, the television building, the Sphinx, the Nile River, and the Saladin Citadel.

It was designed by Engineer Naoum Shabib, one of the pioneers of Egyptian architects and the father of modern architecture in Egypt. At the end of the tour, after climbing the tower and enjoying the panoramic view, you will be transferred back to your place of residence.
