Why visit the Pyramids?

In the event that a time machine magically appeared out of thin air, the global go-to destination would most likely be the Pyramids of Giza. Depicting the wildest dreams and historic fantasy, these pyramids can induce a marvelous feel reminiscent of taking a step back in time. While it is true that Egypt has other famous tourist spots, the pyramids of Giza stand out from the rest. Carrying along a number of secrets, these three pyramids alone capture the imagination of travelers and tourists alike from all over the world. A picture as a souvenir stands as a must-do between “kissing the Sphinx” marking the end of their expedition to Egypt.

Discover ancient Egyptian treasures, take in the breathtaking views of the Sphinx and the three Giza pyramids, and spend an amazing day learning about the interesting Egyptian identity.

You can see the splendor of the Great Pyramids of Giza at sunset with this escorted camel ride. To visit the well-known statue of the Great Sphinx, follow your Egyptologist guide into the desert. Join us to learn more about the pyramids.

Itinerary

Private Tour to Giza Pyramids with Camel Ride

We begin our journey to see the pyramids and ride a camel at sunrise in the morning (you may select the time). When you meet in the hotel lobby, we will transport you through our agents. In the afterlife, the Egyptian pharaohs hoped to become gods. To prepare for the afterlife, they built massive pyramid tombs for themselves and temples for the gods. These tombs were equipped with everything a king or queen would need to live and take care of themselves in the afterlife.

The three giant pyramids are but one of many components of an elaborate complex that includes boat pits, palaces, temples, and other structures. Here is everything you need to know about their construction, who was responsible for their construction, and the riches that we found inside.

Admire a breathtaking view of a desert oasis close to the Pyramids of Giza. You will be met with a breathtaking panorama of the Khufu, Kheiren, and Menkaure pyramids as soon as you enter the desert. What makes this tour special is...

After your trip is over, you will be driven back to your hotel or to another location of your choosing.
