Itinerary

From El Sokhna: Pyramids, Coptic Cairo, and felucca ride tour

We will pick you up from Ein El Sokhna Port in the early morning. After that, you will be driven in an air-conditioned car (it will take 1.5 to 2 hours to get there) to Cairo.

first, we will start our trip by visiting the Giza Pyramids, which were constructed by the illustrious rulers of the fourth dynasty of the Old Kingdom, Cheops, the son of Cheops and the builder of the second pyramids Chephren, and the third pyramid owner Mycerinus. Next, we continue our Cairo Tours to the Pyramids and stop at the Valley Temple, which was built specifically for mummifying the Pharaoh's body.

proceed to Coptic After that, tourists go to Cairo to see fascinating structures like the Hanging Church, which dates back to the third and early fourth centuries. Basilica architecture may be seen in the construction of the Ben Ezra Synagogue and the Abu Sirga Church, which were both constructed around the beginning of the 15th century AD.

It was built above the cave where the Holy Family sought refuge in the basilica style. Visit the Amr Ibn El-Aas mosque, Egypt's earliest mosque, to round up your trip to Cairo with our Al Ain el Sokhna excursions. and enjoy your time.

After exploring the Pyramids and Coptic Cairo, relax with a felucca ride on the Nile River. This is a great way to take in the sights and sounds of Cairo and get a feel for life on the Nile.

Finally, you will be transferred back with your guide back to Sokhna Port.
