Day 2: Pyramids Sightseeing Tour

We'll have a guided tour of the Pyramids of Giza after breakfast at our hotel. Then we'll drive to the pyramids of Khufu, Chephren, and Mycerinus. You'll be able to see all the amazing wonders of the world created by the ancient Egyptians right here in one place. And you can even enjoy a camel ride while you're there!

The Great Sphinx of Giza is an impressive monument carved from a single piece of granite. It has served as the guardian of the necropolis for centuries and remains one of the most famous and iconic statues in the world.

The valley temple is one of Egypt's oldest temples and it was constructed to help execute the ritual known as the opening of the mouth, which was meant to help King Chephren's Mummy eat, drink, and communicate regularly in the afterlife. It's located close to the Sphinx, which makes it an important site.

Memphis is a great place to visit, as it is home to many artifacts and riches from the Egyptian dynasty. It is only a short drive away, and you are welcome to experience all that this wonderful city has to offer.

Visit Saqqara Necropolis, an important and historic archaeological site that has a number of Mastaba tombs for significant figures in history. Among these tombs are those of aristocracy, aristocrats, and kings and queens as well as the forebears of the Egyptian pharaohs. You will witness the Step Pyramid, which renowned architect Imhotep erected for King Djoser. This pyramid is the first ever built. After touring the city and experiencing all that Giza has to offer, we'll bring you back to your Giza hotel for the night.

Before continuing our journey to Memphis, we recommend you take a break and enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant in the town of Saqqara.

After an exciting city tour, return to your hotel in Giza for the evening.

Day 3: Alexandria sightseeing tour

After breakfast, get ready to start your day trip from Cairo to Alexandria with a professional English-speaking Egyptologist guide. We will take you on an air-conditioned journey from Cairo to Alexandria, with breaks for hiking for approximately 2.5 hours.

Alexandria is a city with a rich history, and it's a great place to visit. The city was founded by Alexander the Great, and it has been a center of culture and learning ever since. There are a lot of things to see in Alexandria, including the well-known Pompey's Pillar and the Kom El Shokkafa Catacombs.

The historical site of the Alexandrian Library, which was once the world's largest library, is located in a beautiful city overlooking the Mediterranean. Ptolemy I built the library in the third century BC, and it remains one of the most important and historic sites in the world.

If you visit Alexandria, you will definitely enjoy delicious seafood. The food here is fresh and always perfect for your taste.

After that, the car will take you back to Cairo.

Day 4: Egyptian Museum and Cairo Tour

After breakfast at the hotel, get ready for your tour of Egypt. One of the most visited museums in the world, the Egyptian Museum has a significant collection of Egyptian artifacts spread over two floors. The most exciting of these artifacts is the royal treasure of the golden pharaoh Tutankhamun, which is on display separately.

The Saladin Citadel is a remarkable example of Islamic architecture. You'll appreciate visiting Cairo, with its rich Islamic history and architecture. You'll see some of Egypt's most impressive mosques, including the Mohamed Ali Alabaster Mosque.

The Hanging Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, also known as Al Mualaka or the hanging church because it is built above the fortress's towers, is one of the attractions on our tour of Coptic Cairo.

As part of our Cairo Day Tours, you'll also visit the Ben Ezra Synagogue, which is said to be located on the site where baby Moses' basket was discovered. The holy family spent three months living in the vault above this synagogue, and they also obtained their water from here.

We'll take a break for lunch before continuing our tour of Islamic Cairo, which takes us to the Khan El Khalili market. Here, you can see the 10th-century tunnels and the medieval Cairo walls and gates.

After returning to Cairo, our representative will take you to your hotel for the night.

Day 5: The White Desert and Bahariya Oasis Overnight from Cairo

At 7 a.m. tomorrow, your chauffeur and tour guide will pick you up from your Cairo hotel and take you to the Bahariya Oasis, about 360 kilometers east of Cairo.

When you get to the White Desert, you'll find the Bahariya Oasis. Your overnight trip will start in Cairo with a leisurely lunch at the Bahariya Oasis and then take tours of the Alexander the Great Temple, the nobles' tombs in Bahariya Oasis, and the ruins of the Alexander the Great Temple.

After lunch at a restaurant that's modeled after an oasis, you'll travel to the White Desert to visit the Valley of El Haize to the south of the oasis. You can take a short plunge in the warm spring during this break. From the hamlet, a paradise in the middle of the desert, one may enter the Black Desert, where the mountains have been gradually eaten away by natural processes to cover the desert with a layer of black rocky dust. On the route between the Bahariya and Farafra oasis, close to the Crystal Mountain and the White Desert, take a break to admire the contours of the beautiful Crystal Mountain and the majestic Valley of Agabat.

You can enjoy a relaxing afternoon camping in the White Desert while our guide takes care of your lunch. The skies will be ablaze with a stunning sunset, and it's sure to be an unforgettable experience.

While resting in camp, take a moment to admire the beautiful starry sky.

Day 6: White Desert Back to Bahariya Oasis

On your Cairo day trips, you will enjoy a delicious organic breakfast in the White Desert while taking in the beautiful scenery. You'll see the stunning white limestone cobblestones that earned the White Desert its name as you continue your day trips from Cairo. Then you will be driven over the black desert to Cairo. Upon arriving in Bahariya Oasis, you will have the opportunity to admire the fruit orchards, the salt lagoon, and the stunning sand dunes. There will be an end to the two-day trip from Cairo to the White Desert and Bahariya Oasis. The return trip to the hotel in Cairo takes about four hours.

Day 7: The end of your Egypt tours packages from Cairo

Have a delicious last breakfast in Egypt while seeing the sights. Afterward, a tour guide from one of the country's finest tours will pick you up and take you to Cairo International Airport for your last flight.
