Day 2: Alexandria sightseeing Tour

Today, you'll travel from Cairo to Alexandria, a city known for its ancient history dating back to Alexander the Great and beautiful beaches.

The tour starts at 9 am with a drive to Alexandria, where you will be picked up by your local guide to start your city tour. Your first stop will be Fort Qaitbey, which was built in 1480 by Sultan Qaitbey on an island in the Mediterranean Sea. The fort stands at an altitude of about 10 meters above sea level and offers one of the best views of Alexandria, overlooking both the city and its famous seafront promenade.

After that, you will go to see some other sights in Alexandria such as Pompey's Pillar (a huge ancient Roman column standing on top of a hill), and Pompey's Pillar Museum (the oldest museum in the world).

You will visit Kom El-Shuqafa Catacombs (an underground burial site that dates back to 280 BC). We will also visit the Coptic Museum and see its collection of Coptic art and artifacts, including some of the oldest surviving pieces of Christian literature in existence.

After that, we'll take a walk along the Corniche to see some of the city's beautiful architecture and monuments. Then it's time for lunch at one of Alexandria's many seafood restaurants before returning to Cairo.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Fly to Luxor, East Bank Tour

After flying to Luxor and having breakfast at your hotel, you will be picked up by your guide to begin your day. This is a full-day tour of the East Bank of the Nile (also known as the city of the dead). You will visit Karnak temple, one of the largest and most impressive temples in Egypt. It has been in use for over three thousand years and is a fascinating place to explore. The complex is made up of four main temples dedicated to Amun, Mut, Montu, and Ptah.

After visiting Karnak temple, you will travel to Luxor Temple, another incredible site that dates back thousands of years. The temple complex is enormous and it is easy to get lost in its maze-like corridors and rooms. But that's part of what makes it so special!

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Luxor West Bank tour

After breakfast, you will be picked up for an excursion to the West Bank where you will visit a number of tombs including those of King Tuthmosis II, Ramses III, and Seti I. You will also have time to see the tomb of Nefertari and Queen Kiya. we will start our tour by visiting the Valley of the Kings.

It is a royal necropolis where you can see the tombs of some Pharaohs as well as other nobles. You will then visit one of the most famous temples in Egypt - Hatshepsut Temple which is dedicated to Amun-Re, Mut, Khonsu, and Hathor. It was built by Queen Hatshepsut who ruled during the 18th dynasty in honor of Amun-Re, Mut, and Khonsu in around 1460 BC. From there, we will take you to see Deir el-Bahri where there are many temples including those of Hatshepsut (the largest), Tuthmosis III, and Ramesses II.

Afterward, we will visit Medinet Habu Temple built by Ramses III as well as other smaller temples in the area.
