Majestic Al Ula Helicopter Day Tour

Enjoy our unique Helicopter Day Tour to see Al Ula's breathtaking splendor like never before. As you soar over this historic oasis and take in its stunning landscapes from an aerial perspective, get ready to be enthralled.

The most notable natural geological rock structure in AlUla is the majestic Jabal AlFil, which is often known as Elephant Rock. We then travel to Hegra, the capital of the Nabatean Civilization located in the south, which is home to ancient tombs etched into the red and yellow rocks. Hegra is recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site. One of the Hijaz Railway's final trains will be visible there.

Al Ula Helicopter Day Tour

Your tour guide and driver will be there to greet you. You won't need to search for them since they will be waiting for you. They will be holding a sign with your name on it.

Your tour guide will focus solely on you from the beginning of the trip. Your tour guide will talk with you once you're in the car about your interests and goals during this tour, including everything that's happening along the route.

The most notable natural geological rock structure in AlUla is the majestic Jabal AlFil, which is often known as Elephant Rock. We then travel to Hegra, the capital of the Nabatean Civilization located in the south, which is home to ancient tombs etched into the red and yellow rocks. One of the Hijaz Railway's final trains will be visible there.

Our pilot will take you over the three other most significant historical monuments in AlUla: Dadan, the seat of the Dadan and Lihyān kingdoms; Jabal Ikmah, the open-air library; and AlUla Old Town, the medieval city from the 12th century.

You will truly be able to appreciate this destination's charm, legacy, and breathtakingly beautiful scenery as soon as you return to Fursan Village. You will be transferred back to your hotel
