Itinerary

Day 1: Embarkation at Aswan

When you arrive at Luxor International Airport, our agent will meet you and bring you to the boat. The cruise will depart before midday, and you will eat your lunch on board.

The day's itinerary will begin with a visit to the Luxor Temple, which was built by two renowned monarchs of the new country, King Amenhotep III and King Ramses II.

The temple was erected using sandstone pieces transported from southwest Egypt about 4400 BC. Then you'll go to the Karnak temple, which has a large collection of decaying temples and chapels, as well as pylons and other structures.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner.

Day 2: Luxor Excursion

Today's breakfast will also be provided on the MS Jaz Jubilee Nile cruise ship. You will then have the option of crossing to the Nile's west bank to see the Colossi of Memnon. The colossi are two enormous stone statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III that have stood in this necropolis for 3400 years.

They are located across the Nile River from Luxor, the modern city. You will then tour the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens. You will be able to tour Hatshepsut's temple, which is located beneath the cliffs on the Nile's west bank. Furthermore, the temple lies close to Egypt's Valley of the Kings.

Day 3: Edfu - Kom Ombo Temples

Today's breakfast will be served on the MS Jaz Jubilee Nile cruise ship. Following that, we'll go to the beautifully preserved Edfu temple according to ancient Egyptian mythology, Horus of Behdet was the local deity of Edfu, and his wife was Hathor of Dendera, where a very famous shrine for her is known as Dendera shrine. One of the most prominent rites of the Ptolemaic period was their annual ritual. This god was later recognized as Horus, the son of Osiris, an ancient Egyptian god linked with the underworld. It is the best surviving of Ptolemy's Egyptian temples. We'll next return to the cruise ship for lunch before traveling to Kom Ombo temple. At Kom Ombo, we will see the riverbank temple of Sobek, the crocodile god.

Then we'll board the ship and sail to Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 4: Aswan Sightseeing

Breakfast will be provided on board the MS Jaz Jubilee Nile trip today. Following that, we shall go to the Aswan High Dam. The dam is an embankment dam located in Aswan across the Nile River. The Unfinished Obelisk will be our next stop. The obelisk is located in the northern part of ancient Egypt's stone quarries in Aswan. After that, we'll return to the Nile cruise for lunch. Lunch will, in fact, be served on board the trip. Later in the afternoon, we shall sail on the Nile in traditional Nile boats along Elephantine's coasts. The temple is situated on Philae Island, a rocky outcropping in the midst of the Nile River.

After dinner, you will return to the Nile cruise ship and spend the night.

Day 5: Disembarkation

After breakfast, we will disembark the cruise and take a transfer to Aswan Airport for your flight home.

We will miss you.

Meals: Breakfast.
