Day 2: Giza pyramids , Memphis and saqqara sightseeing.

Begin Your buffet breakfast will be made and served in the main restaurant at your hotel in Cairo then start your Egypt Classic Tours at the Giza Plateau, where the iconic pyramids of Giza are located. Head straight to the Great Pyramid of Khufu, the largest and most famous pyramid. You can choose to explore the interior, although there is an additional fee and limited availability. Next, visit the Pyramid of Khafre and the Pyramid of Menkaure. These three pyramids are the most prominent structures on the plateau and provide an awe-inspiring sight. Take some time to admire the Great Sphinx, a colossal statue with the body of a lion and the head of a pharaoh, located near the pyramids. Don't forget to capture some memorable photos.

After exploring the Giza Plateau, make your way to Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt. It's a short drive from Giza.

In Memphis, visit the open-air Memphis Museum to see the colossal statue of Ramses II and other artifacts from ancient Memphis.

Nearby, you'll find the Alabaster Sphinx, which is another impressive ancient statue worth seeing

After Memphis, head to Saqqara, an ancient necropolis known for the Step Pyramid of Djoser, the oldest stone pyramid in Egypt.

Spend some time exploring the Step Pyramid complex and its surrounding structures, including the mortuary temples and tombs. If possible, hire a guide to learn about the historical significance of these structures.

In the Evening you might be feeling tired, so it's a good idea to find a nearby restaurant or café for a leisurely meal.

If you have some energy left, consider catching the Sound and Light Show at the Giza Plateau. This captivating show brings the pyramids to life with light and sound effects, providing a unique experience to end your day.

Day 3: tour the museum and old Cairo.

Start your day by visiting the world-renowned Egyptian Museum, located in Tahrir Square. The museum houses an extensive collection of artifacts from ancient Egypt, including the treasures of Tutankhamun, mummies, statues, jewelry, and much more. You can immerse yourself in the rich history and learn about the fascinating civilization that thrived along the Nile

And after that, we will visit the old Cairo, Hanging Church and explore this ancient church that is suspended over the gatehouse of a Roman fortress.

Coptic Museum: If you're interested in Coptic art and history, this museum is worth a visit. It houses a collection of religious artifacts, manuscripts, and artwork.

Ben Ezra Synagogue: Learn about the Jewish history in Cairo and visit this synagogue, which is believed to be built on the site where baby Moses was found. And we can see Old Cairo's Gates and Walls, Bab Zuweila and Bab el-Futuh are two notable gates that have survived from medieval times. You can climb to the top of Bab Zuweila for a panoramic view of the surrounding area.
