Itinerary

Day 1: Luxor Tours

If you need transportation to your Steamship Sudan Nile Cruise for an open-buffet lunch, our representative will meet you wherever in Luxor and take you there in an air-conditioned vehicle. The temple of Amun, the father of the gods in ancient Egyptian religion, is inside the magnificent Karnak Temple complex, which was built by numerous Kings and rulers. You'll be amazed by how enormous the temple is because its construction and development spanned centuries from the Middle Kingdom to the Ptolemaic era. You will next go on to the Luxor Temple, which was constructed by Amenophis III but for which Ramses II is mostly responsible. Take pleasure in your meal and your stay on the steamship Nile cruise in Luxor.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Valley of the Kings - Sail to Esna / Edfu

After breakfast today, you'll go to the Valley of the Kings, a Theban necropolis from the New Kingdom where the pharaohs embellished their tombs to seem like works of art. You will visit tombs like Ramses VI's, which is one of the largest and best-preserved tombs in the region. Before eating lunch and traveling to Esna towards Edfu and spending the night on board, have a look at the fabled Deir el-Madina, the valley of the workers who were in charge of painting the tombs.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 3: Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

A morning tour of the Temple of Edfu is one of the best-preserved structures in Egyptian history. Once again, you will be sailing to Kom Ombo for a spectacular sunset. Visit the Kom Ombo Temple, a singular complex dedicated to the two great deities Sobek and Haroeris. Nothing can match its majesty.

A night on the boat.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 4: Sail to Aswan - Philae Temple

After breakfast, continue floating the Nile River to Aswan to see the lovely islands that line it, including the Elephantine Island, which served as a commerce hub for the Nubian civilization and was distinguished by its fertile land. You will enjoy your lunch and have the opportunity to see the lovely Sound and Light Show in the Philae Temple (optional excursion) before dinner and overnight. The Temple of Philae is the home for the worship of the wife of God Osiris, Goddess Isis, Goddess of Magic, and the hero in the well-known myth against the evil God Seth according to ancient Egyptian religion.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 5: Last Day in Aswan

After you disembark from your Steamship Sudan Egypt Nile Cruise, you will be transported to any destination in Aswan after eating your delicious breakfast.
