Day 1 onboard MS Grand Palm Nile Cruise: Embarkation and East Bank Tour

Our Luxor Aswan Nile cruise, MS Grand Palm Nile, begins with a visit to the ancient ruins of Karnak Temple. The cruise then takes you on a boat tour of the Luxor East Bank Tours, where you'll explore the temples of Karnak and Luxor. The tour includes a visit to the Karnak Open Air Museum and the restored Red Chapel of Hatchepsut. The tour offers a rich cultural experience in Egypt.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2 onboard MS Grand Palm Nile Cruise: West bank tour - Sail to Esna

With Luxor West Bank Tours, you can visit the Valley of the Kings, Colossi Memnon, and the Hatshepsut Temple. Constructed during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut, the Hatshepsut Temple is a stunning display of Egyptian craftsmanship and architecture. It was constructed with white sandstone covering limestone blocks and has hieroglyphic inscriptions. An optional excursion to the Dendara Temple Complex is included in the tour. A must-see location is the Valley of the Kings, a necropolis with pharaohs' tombs. After the tour, there's a nighttime cruise to Esna.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3 onboard MS Grand Palm Nile Cruise: Edfu Kom Ombo Temples - Sail to Aswan

Today, we'll explore the well-preserved temples of Edfu and Kom Ombo, including the Temple of Horus at Edfu, built by Ptolemy VI Philometor. The temple features a Hypostyle Hall with 134 columns and a roof of eight rows of pillars. The Kom Ombo Temple, built by Nero Claudius Caesar, is dedicated to Sobek and Haroeris, respectively. We'll have a buffet lunch before continuing our Nile cruise towards Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4 onboard MS Grand Palm Nile Cruise: Aswan day tours

A notable engineering achievement, the High Dam in Aswan was constructed in 1964 to regulate Lake Nasser's water flow and stop flooding. In Egypt and Sudan, people still use it today. After the dam, tourists can explore the Unfinished Obelisk, which Ramses II began but was never able to finish because of his death, and Philae Temple, an island devoted to Isis. You have lunch before visiting the ruins.
