Day 2: Tour to Giza Pyramids and the Egyptian Museum

Have breakfast at the hotel, then our tour guide will meet you in the morning at your hotel and then accompany you to the Egyptian Museum and the Pyramids of Giza. You will see the Great Sphinx, which dates to the reign of King Chephren (2620 B.C.), as well as the Three Great Gigantic Pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Menkaure, three rulers of the Old Kingdom who were descended from King Snefru, who established the ruling family and built the three incredible pyramids.

Next, make your way to Cairo's well-known Tahrir Square to begin your private tour of the Egyptian Museum. Numerous artifacts can be found in the Egyptian Museum, which was established in 1902 and contains thousands of statues and coffins. Your tour guide will explain all the information about these monuments to you.

Day 3: Coptic and Islamic Cairo Trips

After Breakfast, Our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel and take you to the most well-known sites in old Cairo. You will begin your incredible tour by visiting Saladin Citadel and the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, which was so named because both its interior and exterior walls are made of alabaster. You will then stroll through Old Cairo to see one of the earliest churches in Egyptian Christian history, the Hanging Church, before continuing on to Abu Serga Church, where the holy family sought refuge for almost three months, and Ben Ezra Synagogue at the end of your Coptic Cairo tour which once was a Christian church before being sold to one of the rich Jewish men.

Enjoy lunch at a neighborhood eatery. If time and energy permit, you will have the chance to visit the Khan El Khalili Bazaar, which is one of Cairo's best walking tours, where locals and tourists alike can enjoy themselves equally. At the conclusion of your Cairo excursions, you will be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo.
