Day 1: Arrive Cairo, Optional Tour

Our tour leader will meet you at Cairo International Airport and accompany you to your hotel in Cairo, assisting you with check-in procedures and revising your 6 Days Cairo and Hurghada Wheelchair Accessible Tour schedule.

This evening, you can take an optional Nile cruise dinner and enjoy a delicious dinner buffet while sailing the Nile River aboard a Nile cruise boat for 2 hours. A lovely oriental display (belly dancing) and Tanoura dance show will entertain you throughout your Nile cruise dinner in Cairo.

Welcome Drink

Day 2: Pyramids, Dahshur, Memphis

After breakfast in the hotel, you will be welcomed by your tour guide, who will accompany you on your tour to the Giza Pyramids, Dahshur, and Memphis.

Begin your trips with a tour of the Giza Pyramids, where you will be astounded by the size of these massive structures built during the old kingdom of ancient Egypt history by the most powerful kings and rulers of ancient Egypt as proof of the success they achieved 4500 years ago thanks to the Nile River.

See the Great Pyramid of King Cheops, who was influenced by his father's attempts to construct massive burial tombs, King Cheops (that was constructed his pyramid using more than 2.3 million limestone blocks to serve as the eternal home from which he would rise to the heavens, the building stood at a height of 146 meters with 230 meters long for each side).

going by the high plateau to enjoy a picturesque perspective of the 3 pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus. Chephren, Cheops' son, built his pyramid slightly smaller than his father's, with a height of 136 meters and some traces of the outer casing at the top.

See the Great Sphinx in Giza, a statue of a man-headed lion that is said to have been built by King Chephren himself because it stands within his pyramid complex, and see the Valley Temple, where the king was mummified as part of the burial ritual.

Continue your tours in Cairo by visiting the ancient city of Memphis, now known as Mit Rahina, and seeing the open-air museum with the second-largest alabaster sphinx and the colossal statue of King Ramses II, one of Egypt's most powerful kings during the new kingdom.

Transfer to the Dahshur Archaeological Site to visit the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid, two of four pyramids built for King Snefru, the 4th dynasty's founder and the father of King Cheops. The Bent Pyramid maintains a large portion of its outer casing material, making it one of Egypt's most unusual pyramids. The Red Pyramid is distinguished by the reddish tint of the limestone blocks used in its construction and is regarded as Egypt's first perfect-shaped pyramid.

Before being transferred back to your hotel, you will have a gourmet lunch at a high-quality restaurant overlooking the Giza Pyramids.
