Day 2: Pyramids and Cairo Tours

Good Morning

Today, you'll get to see some of Egypt's most unique sites, such as The Giza Pyramids, where you'll see the Great Pyramid of Cheops, the middle pyramid of King Chephren, also known as (The Second Pyramid), and the smallest and third pyramid, which was built for King Mycerinus to serve as a tomb. It took 20 years to complete.

You will not only be able to see some of Egypt's most impressive ancient monuments, but you will also be able to admire the Great Sphinx of Giza, a symbol of power and wisdom. Furthermore, its head is said to resemble King Chephren.

If you want to take a camel ride through Cairo, there's still time - and we can even help you take beautiful photos to remember the experience.

Then you'll go to the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities to see a collection of unique artifacts dating back over two thousand years. Among these are 120,000 objects used by ancient Egyptians as everyday tools and accessories. You'll also be able to see massive coffins, massive statues, and King Tutankhamun's golden collection. This is a museum that will provide you with a wealth of information.

Following a delectable lunch in a local restaurant, you'll continue your Egypt day tours with an unforgettable Coptic Cairo Tour. This tour includes six ancient churches, as well as the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary, one of the oldest churches in old Cairo, and the Abu Serga Church, an ancient Egyptian church that dates back to the 4th century. You'll also see the ancient Jewish Synagogue of Ben Ezra, which was once a Christian church.

Day 3: Alexandria Trip

Good Morning

A perfect way to start your day is with a delightful breakfast, energizing you for an exciting journey from Cairo to the captivating city of Alexandria. Alexandria boasts a remarkable history and is home to several awe-inspiring monuments and attractions that will make your visit truly unforgettable.

Next, we will move to The Citadel of Qaitbay is a historical fortress situated on the Mediterranean coast, built in the 15th century by Sultan Al-Ashraf Sayf al-Din Qaitbay.

It was constructed on the site of the famous Lighthouse of Alexandria; it was one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The citadel's strategic location offers breathtaking views of the sea and the city, making it a perfect starting point for your journey.

Next on your itinerary is the Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa, an intriguing underground burial site dating back to the 2nd century AD.

A visit to Pompey's Pillar awaits you, a towering granite column reaching a height of 27 meters, erected in honor of the Roman emperor Diocletian.

For those interested in history and culture, the Alexandria Bibliotheca, or Library of Alexandria, is a must-visit. While it is not the original library that was famously destroyed, this modern-day library serves as a vital cultural center.
