Day 1: Arrival Day.

After collecting you from Cairo International Airport, our knowledgeable Egypt tour guide will drive you in a private, air-conditioned vehicle to your Cairo hotel. When you arrive, we'll make plans for the next day's travel, offer you a welcome drink, and help you quickly check-in.

Day meals: Lunch.

Day 2: Pyramids Tour

After breakfast on the second day, our guide will take you to your destination.

Pharaoh Khufu, who ruled from 2528 to 2551 BC, is credited with building the Great Giza Pyramids. Memphis was a significant city during the Old Kingdom era and the longtime capital of Lower Egypt. Other pyramids were also constructed under the reign of Khafre.

Known variously as the Step Pyramid, the Pyramid of Saqqara, or the Pyramid of Djoser, is among the most famous and important ancient Egyptian structures. It is a striking illustration of the ability and sophistication of ancient Egyptian construction.

then you will be taken back to your hotel for the overnight.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 3: Cairo Tour

After breakfast on the third day of your Cairo trip, begin your sightseeing with the Nile Cruise, Fayoum, and Oasis 13-Day Luxury Package.

One well-known public museum is the Egyptian Museum, which is situated in Cairo. Located on Mokattam Mountain, the Saladin Citadel is a well-known fortification that was constructed by Salah al-Din al-Ayyubi. Sultan Al-Kamil bin Al-Adil finished it, and it is still a well-liked travel destination. One of Cairo's oldest neighborhoods, Khan El Khalili Bazar, is a well-liked tourist attraction featuring stores and eateries.

overnight in Cairo

Meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 4: East Bank of Luxor

Eating a healthy breakfast will help you concentrate on your trip itinerary later in the day. Everything will go smoothly when you transfer to the airport and board your aircraft to Luxor. Lastly, when you're there, don't forget to check out some of Luxor's most famous landmarks!

The ancient structure known as the Karnak temple was constructed throughout time in several distinct architectural styles. This is because later emperors felt it appropriate to embellish the temple with new elements in honor of the god Amun, his spouse Mutt, and their son Khonsu.

Located in Luxor on the east bank of the Nile, the Luxor Temple is an amazing collection of ancient Egyptian temples. Its building was ordered by Amenhotep III to confirm that the god Amun was the one who owned it, as Egyptian customs had it that he was not eligible to take the throne. Furthermore, the temple would function as a focal point for the three Theban Triad members' worship.

then you'll return to your Nile cruise.

Day Meals: All-Inclusive

Day 5: West Bank of Luxor

You will be able to take advantage of an opulent morning in Fayoum and the oasis on the fifth day of the 13-day Cairo Nile cruise.

Along with other historic pharaonic ruins, the Hatshepsut temple is located in the Valley of Kings, a well-known archeological site. The sole surviving remnant of a temple constructed by Pharaoh Amenhotep III is the pair of exquisite statues known as the Colossi of Memnon.

When your tour is finished, you will return to your Nile cruise.

Day meals: all-inclusive

Day 6: Edfu and Kom Ombo

You will set sail for Edfu on your sixth day of sightseeing. You are going to this famous archaeological site after breakfast.

The city of Edfu in ancient Egypt was known by the name Edbu or Debo, which means the town of intrusion. Edfu is close to the Coptic name Etbu. The Ptolemies renamed it Apollopolis Magna, which means the great city of Apollo. Today, Edfu Temple is a popular tourist destination and is known for its ancient temples and monuments.

The Kom Ombo temple was built during the reign of Ptolemy VI Philometor, but its exquisite decoration wasn't completed until the time of Emperor Tiberius. Local devotion to the place continues to this day.

After experiencing the Nile Cruise, you will be able to return home easily.

Our all-inclusive day meals provide everything you need for a nutritious meal. You'll never have to worry about preparing a meal again!

Day meals: all-inclusive.

Day 7: Aswan Day Tour

The package includes daily breakfast for a full day of sightseeing. The High Dam protects Egypt from disasters like drought and famine by providing water. An unfinished obelisk is a popular tourist destination. The Philae temple, named after Philae, is a popular tourist attraction. Bilak, meaning the end, was Egypt's last frontier.

After you transfer back to your Nile cruise, you'll have another chance to enjoy the cruise.

Day meals: all-inclusive

Day 8: Sail to Abu Simbel

Start your travel package with a delectable breakfast on the eighth day. After that, change to a sailing ship and set out for Abu Simbel.

One of Egypt's most well-known ancient monuments is the Temple of Abu Simbel. Its significance stems from its connection to the twice-yearly occurrence of the sun setting perpendicular to the face of the Pharaoh Ramses II statue on October 22 and February 22.

When you come back for your Nile cruise, pack your luggage and fly to Cairo.
overnight in a Cairo hotel.

Day meals: breakfast.

Day 9: Free Tour

There are plenty of ways to enjoy a free day in Cairo; you could take a leisurely walk with locals or choose to have an optional tour with a tour leader. It all depends on what you want to do.

day meals: breakfast.

Day 10: Travel to Fayoum

Enjoy your journey to Fayoum by starting your day with a wholesome meal.

The fossilized remains of some of the earliest whales ever discovered may be found in Wadi El Hitan, which makes it significant. This region was presumably under a vast ocean 40 million years ago, but as a result of geological processes, the ocean receded leaving behind an abundance of marine life. This area has numerous fish and shell fossils, as well as the remains of several kinds of whales.
