Day 2 – Luxor West Bank and Cruise to Edfu

The day begins with a rich breakfast on board, followed by a Nile cruise tour and a Luxor West Bank full-day tour you will never forget. The Valley of the Kings will be your first stop. Tutankhamun's mummy is still in the tomb today. The tomb of King Ramses VI was also discovered here. After you visit the Valley of the Kings, you will head to the magnificent Temple of Queen Hatshepsut. This is a massive rock-cut temple that attracts tens of thousands of visitors every year, and it is an ancient site that every visitor should try to see during their stay. Later in the day, afternoon tea will be served, and around 6:00 p.m., a nice "Captain's Welcome" cocktail will be served. The dining room will be opened shortly after, and the crew will begin serving dinner. At night, there will be a disco on board for those who want to dance, but if live music isn't your thing, you can just relax instead. We'll spend the night on the water in Edfu.
