Day 1 : Arrival to Cairo and Check in

When your plane lands at Cairo International Airport, your Cairo Top Tours tour guide will be waiting for you with a signboard bearing your name. He will transport you to your Giza hotel in a luxurious, air-conditioned private vehicle.

On this day you can check out our Desert Safari From South Africa to schedule all pick-up times before arriving at the hotel so that our representative can assist you with a quick check-in.

Cairo overnight stay

Day 2: Pyramids Sightseeing Tour

Cairo attractions

In the early morning, relish your hotel's delicious breakfast in Cairo. Following your meeting with our trained tour guide, begin your journey to the Giza pyramids, in addition to the well-known Sphinx, the biggest sphinx in Egypt.

You will have some free time to explore the magnificent three pyramids if you so like or to snap pictures of them while your tour guide explains their history.

Next, you will visit The Valley temple which is among Egypt's oldest and is situated directly in front of the Sphinx, was primarily constructed to carry out the ceremony known as the opening of the mouth for King Chephren so that his Mummy might eat, drink, and communicate normally in the afterlife.

You may now relax and have lunch in a local restaurant in the town of Saqqara before we go to Memphis.

Travel to Saqqara Necropolis, one of the richest and oldest archaeological sites in the world, which has several Mastaba tombs for prominent officials, aristocrats, and nobles as well as the ancestors of the Pharaohs of ancient Egypt.

Saqqara Necropolis is home to 11 royal pyramids. You will view the Step Pyramid, which is the first pyramid and was constructed for King Djoser by the renowned architect Imhotep.

The trip includes a stop at the entrance to the Teti pyramid, which is covered on the interior with hieroglyphs and Cartouches of the Kings, which are oval or elongated structures that contain a collection of Egyptian hieroglyphs (symbols).

After finishing your exciting tours in Giza, we will take you back to spend the night at your hotel in Giza.

Day 3: Alexandria sightseeing tour

Get ready for an exciting day as we embark on our Egypt desert safari Tours, starting with a journey from Cairo to Alexandria, where we'll be accompanied by a qualified English-speaking Egyptologist guide.

The city of Alexandria, often referred to as the second capital of Egypt and a true gem of the Mediterranean region, was founded by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C., and it bears his name.

Our first stop will be at Pompey's Pillar, a renowned historical site built in 297 BC to commemorate the victory of Roman emperor Diocletian.

Next, we'll head to the Catacombs of Kom El Shokkafa, an intriguing discovery made in the early 20th century. These catacombs are believed to be one of the largest Roman burial sites.

Of course, no visit to Alexandria would be complete without exploring the legendary Bibliotheca of Alexandria, the ancient library that once held the title of the world's largest.

During our time in Alexandria, we'll indulge in a delicious seafood meal, as the city is known for its delectable seafood cuisine.

Overall, this day promises to be filled with fascinating historical insights and unforgettable experiences as we delve into the captivating heritage of Alexandria, guided by our expert Egyptologist.

Day 4: Egyptian Museum and Cairo Tour

Start the day with breakfast at the hotel, Visit the Egyptian Museum, which houses a vast collection of Egyptian artifacts on two floors. The most captivating exhibit is the royal treasure of King Tutankhamun, displayed separately.

Proceed to the Saladin Citadel, an important administrative center in Egypt's history.

Explore Islamic Cairo, with its historic mosques, towering minarets, and colorful domes, some of which are centuries old. The first stop is the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, showcasing unique Ottoman architecture in Egypt.

Continue to the Hanging Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, also known as Al Mualaka, built above fortress towers.

Visit the Ben Ezra Synagogue, believed to be located where Baby Moses' basket was found, with a crypt where the holy family lived and a spring they used for water.

Enjoy a delicious lunch during the tour.

Conclude the day with a visit to the Khan El Khalili market, a lively center of Islamic Middle Ages Cairo, featuring medieval walls, gates, and ancient alleys from the 10th century.

Return to the hotel for an overnight stay in Cairo.

Day 5: The White Desert and Bahariya Oasis Overnight from Cairo

At 7:00 am

Your private tour guide and driver will pick you up from your Cairo hotel for an overnight trip to the Bahariya Oasis, approximately 360 kilometers east of Cairo.

Upon arrival at the Bahariya Oasis, you'll enjoy a leisurely lunch before starting your exploration. First, you'll visit the Golden Mummies Museum, which houses an impressive exhibition of well-preserved mummies from ancient times.

After lunch at a restaurant designed like an oasis, the journey continues to the White Desert. Here, you'll marvel at the Valley of El Haize, located south of the oasis, where you can take a refreshing dip in a warm spring.

On the way between the oasis of Bahariya and Farafra, close to the Crystal Mountain and the White Desert, make a pit stop to see the shapes of the stunning Crystal Mountain and the spectacular Valley of Agabat.

Finally, You'll have the unique experience of camping in the White Desert, providing a perfect opportunity to witness a breathtaking sunset. Spend the night under the stars, surrounded by the enchanting beauty of the desert.

Day 6: White Desert Back to Bahariya Oasis

Today, as part of your Cairo Excursions, you will eat your organic local breakfast in the White Desert while admiring the breathtaking scenery. As you continue your Cairo day tours, you will see the stunning white limestone boulders that gave the white desert its name. After that, you'll be driven back to Cairo across the Black Desert.

The two-day trip from Cairo to the White Desert and Bahariya Oasis will come to an end when we stop at Bahariya Oasis to enjoy the salt lake, visit the fruit farms, and admire the spectacular sand dunes. We'll be driving back to the Cairo hotel for about four hours.

Day 7: The end of your Egypt tours packages from Cairo

While in Egypt, enjoy a delicious final breakfast. Following check-out, a tour guide from one of Egypt's finest tours will pick you up and transport you to Cairo International Airport for your final flight.
