Day 2: Alexandria tour

Your tour guide will take you to Pompey's Pillar, the world's highest memorial monument, following a delicious breakfast at your hotel. This is the first place we will be seeing today. Admire the pillar and explore the remains there. The summit of the column provides breathtaking views of the surroundings, including Alexandria and the Mediterranean Sea. You can ascend the stairs to the column's summit to enjoy the breathtaking vistas.

Afterward, transport you to The Citadel of Qaitbey, a well-liked tourist destination in Alexandria renowned for its striking architectural design and historical importance. Four towers, each with a different shape and style, are part of the red and white stone stronghold.

Next proceed to Bibliotheca Alexandrina, one of the biggest and most important libraries in the entire world. The library's design, which includes a large circular structure with a glass top and a granite façade, is an amazing achievement in modern architecture. A sizable subterranean storage facility with space for up to 8 million volumes is also part of the library.
