Day Tour to Giza Pyramids and Saqqara Necropolis from Cairo

Your tour with Cairo Top Tours begins with a convenient pick-up from any location in Cairo or Giza, marking the start of your immersive Egypt Tours. First, you'll be transported to the renowned Giza Pyramids and the iconic Saqqara Necropolis.

At the Giza Necropolis, you'll encounter the legendary tombs including the Pyramid of Cheops, a marvel recognized as one of the ancient world's Seven Wonders. Nearby, the Pyramid of Chephren, linked with the Great Sphinx—a monumental lion statue with a human head guarding the necropolis for over 4500 years. Adjacent is the Valley Temple of King Chephren, where the king's mummification rituals were performed, and the Pyramid of Mycerinus, featuring small pyramidions housing the king's queens and children.

Following your exploration of the Giza Pyramids, you'll continue to Saqqara Necropolis, home to the grand Step Pyramid of Pharaoh Djoser—the largest and most famous of its kind. Built around 2650 B.C. by the visionary architect Imhotep, this pyramid stands as a testament to ancient engineering, innovatively stacking mastabas (rectangular tombs) to create its distinctive shape.

Enjoy a delightful lunch at a local restaurant during your Egypt Trips, before being comfortably transferred back to your hotel to conclude your enriching Cairo Day Tours.
