

Tanoura Dance Show in Cairo

Price Starting From : $35

4 Hours

Cairo

Egypt

Wekalet El-Ghuri, a historic tower near the main bazaar, Khan Al Khalili, is often missed on typical Cairo Day Tours. Constructed in the 16th century during Islamic Egypt, it offers a stunning backdrop for the mesmerizing Tanoura Sufi Dance Show. This artistic performance is held three nights a week and lasts approximately an hour and a half.

Overview

Inclusion

Your tour includes transportation to and from your hotel in Cairo or Giza, with an English-speaking tour leader to accompany you.

Enjoy a one and a half hour show at Wekalet El-Ghuri Tanoura.

Travel in an air-conditioned vehicle for your private Egypt tours to the Tanoura dance show in Cairo.

All taxes and service charges for your Egypt Day Tours are included, along with a complimentary bottle of water during the transfer to the show.

Photography is permitted during the Tanoura Show in Cairo.

Exclusion

Additional items not specified in the itinerary.

Recording videos during the show is prohibited.

Extended stays at Khan Al Khalili market are available upon request (additional fees may apply).

Gratuities are not covered in the cost of your Egypt trips.

During Ramadan, tourist sites typically close at 3:00 pm, so tours usually commence one hour earlier.

Rates are applicable for Christmas, New Year tours in Egypt, and Egypt Easter tours.

Itinerary

Tanoura Dance Show in Cairo

One of the top-notch shows you shouldn't miss during your visit with Egypt Day Tours and Cairo trips is the Tanoura dance show. A Cairo Top Tours guide will meet you anywhere in Cairo or Giza to take you to enjoy this unique experience at Wekalet El-Ghuri, a standout attraction in Cairo Day Tours. The dance performance, featuring skilled performers, occurs every Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday at 7:30 PM, lasting for 75 minutes.

Following the show, you'll be chauffeured back to your hotel, or you can opt to explore the Khan El-Khalili bazaar for souvenir shopping or relax at one of Egypt's oldest cafes.