Nuweiba Beaches:

Nuweiba Beaches and Camps offer a perfect escape on the beautiful Red Sea coastline. Visitors can unwind on the pristine, sandy beaches while taking in panoramic views of crystal-clear waters. The camps provide a range of accommodations, from rustic huts to comfortable bungalows, all designed to blend seamlessly with the natural surroundings. Whether you're looking to relax under the sun, dive into vibrant coral reefs, or explore nearby attractions like the Coloured Canyon, Nuweiba is the perfect destination for a peaceful retreat.

Nuweiba Camps:

Basata Camp is a popular eco-friendly camp located in Nuweiba. It offers traditional Bedouin-style accommodation, including beach huts and tents with basic amenities. The camp promotes sustainability and environmental conservation, providing a serene setting amidst palm trees and sandy beaches. Enjoy activities such as snorkelling, yoga sessions, and cultural evenings with Bedouin music and dance.

Habiba Beach Lodge combines rustic charm with modern comforts. Located on a private beach in Nuweiba, the lodge offers cosy beachfront cabins and tents overlooking the Red Sea. Guests can relax in hammocks, swim in clear waters, and dine on fresh seafood.

Nuweiba day tour

Begin your day early to make the most of your time in Nuweiba. Depart from your hotel or campsite in the morning and head towards your first destination.

Start your day with a visit to Ain Khudra Oasis, a serene desert oasis surrounded by palm trees and natural springs. Stroll around the oasis, enjoy the tranquil atmosphere, and learn about its significance in local Bedouin culture.

Then, we will proceed to the Colored Canyon, a geological marvel known for its vibrant sandstone rock formations. Embark on a guided hike through the canyon, marveling at the surreal colors and intricate patterns sculpted by nature over centuries. Capture stunning photos of this unique landscape.

Pause for a delicious lunch at a local restaurant or enjoy a picnic amidst the desert scenery. Savor traditional Egyptian dishes or fresh seafood, taking in the peaceful surroundings.
