Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara Necropolis, Quad Biking in Giza

After a restful night, you'll enjoy breakfast at the hotel before starting your tour of the Giza Pyramids. The Giza Pyramids complex, located in the Giza Necropolis in Greater Cairo, offers a fascinating glimpse into ancient Egypt. You'll explore the Great Pyramid of Giza (Cheops), the Pyramid of Khafre (Chephren), and the Pyramid of Menkaure (Mecerus), along with their associated complexes and the Great Sphinx of Giza. You'll also have the opportunity to enjoy an optional camel ride around the pyramids.

Next, you'll visit Saqqara to see the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, the first stone pyramid ever built, and explore the tomb of Kagemni among the noble tombs near the Pyramid of King Teti from the 6th dynasty.

Lunch will be served at a beautiful restaurant with views of the pyramids and the Sphinx. Afterward, you'll embark on an exciting 1-hour quad biking adventure around the Giza Pyramids. You'll meet with a Bedouin guide for a brief introduction on how to use the quad bike before the ride. Finally, you'll return to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Egyptian Museum, Coptic Cairo, Nile Cruise Dinner

After breakfast, you'll meet your Egyptologist guide to begin your Cairo city tour, starting with a visit to the Egyptian Museum. Located in the renowned Tahrir Square, you'll have around 2 hours to explore the museum, home to over 120,000 artifacts from various periods. Marvel at the golden treasures of the New Kingdom, including the renowned collection from the tomb of King Tutankhamun discovered in 1922 in the Valley of the Kings.

Next, you'll head to Old Cairo for a Coptic Cairo tour. Begin by exploring the remnants of the Roman fortress of Babylon, where the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary is perched on two of the fortress's towers. You'll also visit the Cavern Church of St. Serius and the Ben Ezra Synagogue, which was originally a Christian church before being sold to a wealthy Jewish man named Ben Ezra.

In the evening, return to the hotel to prepare for a delightful dinner cruise on the Nile. Your tour leader will transfer you to the cruise boat on the Nile Corniche, where you'll enjoy a 2-hour cruise with a buffet dinner of Egyptian cuisine, accompanied by entertainment including belly dancing and a Tanoura dance show.

After the cruise, you'll be transferred back to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
