14 Days Tour from Cairo to Luxor, Aswan, Alexandria, and Siwa

Envisage a journey through Egypt from one wonder of the world to another-the Great Pyramids to the Valley of the Kings.

Luxor is a city that is teeming with thousands upon thousands of ancient wonders, and it can be called the capital of ancient Egypt and modern Egypt since 2000 BC-with a third of the monuments in the world located in Luxor.

Listen to the rich heritage of Luxor with its great landmarks, the Temple of Karnak, Luxor Temple, the Monastery Temple, the Valley of the Kings, the Valley of the Queens, Mortuary Temple of Amenhotep III, and Luxor Museum. Beautifully spread over the East Bank and the West Bank of the Nile, these amazing sites call for exploring.

Since times immemorial, reserve your spot with us for a trip to discover Egypt's treasures.
