Itinerary

Giza Pyramids and Meidum Tour

Learn the enigmatic skeletons of the most captivating civilization in the history of the people as you roam around the Giza Necropolis where three of the premier pyramids ancient Egypt had constructed through the kings and the pharaohs of the Old Kingdom period.

This Tour to Giza Pyramids and Meidum from Cairo will enable you stand before the mighty pyramid of King Cheops, or Khufu in the Egyptian language, a huge monument which served as a tomb for a Pharaoh who was not only a ruler of the United Kingdom and Lower Egypt but also was divinized and depicted as a son of god Amun Ra in the religious system of the old kingdom of Egypt. You will have ample time to read all about everything Egyptian with the private tour guide who will be with you throughout the tour through the various sites of the Giza pyramids to view the Great Sphinx – the lion with human head who is said to be king Chephren and the Valley Temple which served as the place of mummification of the royal corpse.

Inquire from your guide if you wish to take beautiful shots while seated on camel back while touring around the pyramids of Giza; it is an experience you cannot get anywhere else.

After the approximately 30 minutes drive, get to your next stop, the step pyramid of Meidum, which was constructed for the king Snefru, the founder of the 4th dynasty from 470 decades ago. A meal of Egyptian lunch at the restaurant of good quality will be served after you have completed your Cairo Day Tours before you will be taken back to your hotel.
