The King's Valley:

It is known as the Valley of the Kings because it is located in the valley of a dry river on the west bank of the ancient city of Thebes (modern Luxor). However, this name is not totally accurate because, in addition to the kings, some high-ranking non-royals were also buried there. The eastern and western valleys make up the Valley of the Kings.

Additionally, you will be moving between tombs during your stay and inside the valley of Kings on the back of a donkey. Then at the end, you will be taken back again to your drop-off location.
