Day Trip to Alexandria from Alexandria Port

Upon your arrival at the Port of Alexandria, your professional tour guide from our company will be eagerly awaiting to embark on your day-long excursion, ensuring you make the most of your time in this remarkable city.

The first stop on your itinerary will be the captivating Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, which date back to the Greco-Roman period. Your knowledgeable guide will provide you with a comprehensive historical introduction to Alexandria and its key attractions, enriching your understanding of this ancient city.

Next, you'll visit the iconic Pompey's Pillar, which stands as the tallest pillar in all of Egypt, offering a striking monument to the city's storied past.

Continuing your tour, you'll be taken to the impressive Citadel of Qaitbay, a fortification built in 1477 by the Mamluk King Qaitbay to defend Egypt's borders from the Ottoman threat. This strategic structure occupies the same site as the legendary ancient Alexandria lighthouse.

Midway through your day, you'll enjoy a delightful seafood lunch, prepared with the freshest local ingredients, or you can opt for other delectable options like chicken or a mixed grill.

Afterwards, your guide will lead you to the renowned Library of Alexandria, a modern interpretation of the ancient library that once stood as a beacon of knowledge and scholarship for the entire world. Today, this impressive institution continues to serve as a hub for scientists and scholars from across the globe.

As your tour winds down, your certified Egyptologist guide will accompany you on a walking exploration of Alexandria's vibrant streets and the picturesque Corniche, providing you with a deeper understanding of the city's character and daily life.

Finally, your guide will escort you back to the Port of Alexandria, ensuring you are dropped off directly at the cruise ship exit door, as is the standard practice for all our Alexandria shore excursion tours.
