Day 3: White Desert Tour

Enjoy your breakfast before embarking on a journey to the enchanting White Desert, located near the Black Desert. This uninhabited and lifeless desert not only attracts curious tourists but also professional photographers. The play of shadows at certain times of the day creates unique and mesmerizing images.

As you pass through the Black Desert, note that access is typically by private vehicle, either rented or as part of an excursion, since minibusses from the capital do not have an established stop in the area. Continue on to the Valley of El Haize, about 50 km south of Bawiti, the central village of the Bahariya Oasis. Along the way, stop to witness the charming Crystal Mountain and the beautiful Valley of Agabat.

This trip offers a fantastic opportunity to camp in the White Desert. Enjoy a breathtaking sunset followed by a gourmet dinner under the stars.

Day 4: Bahariya Oasis Tour

Breakfast will be given in the morning, followed by a tour of the White Desert. You will view limestone formations of rabbits, mushrooms, and other forms, as well as hot springs with natural skin benefits.

Return to the Bahariya Oasis, where your tour guide will transport you to Cairo for check-in and stay.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 5: Cairo to Aswan - Aswan Sightseeing

After breakfast at your Cairo hotel, you will be transferred to Cairo International Airport for your flight to Aswan. Upon arrival, you will be met by a Cairo Top Tours representative to begin your Aswan tours. First, visit Aswan High Dam, which was built in 1960 to protect Egypt from the annual tides.

Then, visit the Philae Temple, which has unique stones and engravings that have remained intact for thousands of years. You will be brought to your hotel in Aswan, check in, and stay overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: Edfu Temple - Overnight in Luxor

Visit Edfu Temple after breakfast and check-out procedures; this magnificent temple is devoted to the falcon God Horus, defender of kingship and son of Osiris; you will have ample time to explore its splendor before being driven to your hotel in Luxor after lunch.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 7: Luxor East Bank Tours

Start your day with a delicious breakfast, then visit the Luxor Museum, which opened to the public in 1975. The Luxor Temple, built by King Amenhotep III in the New Kingdom and completed by Pharaoh Ramses II in the 19th Dynasty, houses grave goods from the tomb of the 18th dynasty golden pharaoh Tutankhamen, as well as statues from the New Kingdom.

Meals: breakfast and lunch

Day 8: Luxor West Bank Tours

Today is a fantastic day to continue your Luxor Tours by viewing the attractions of Luxor West Bank Tours. Begin at the Valley of the Kings, where New Kingdom Kings and Pharaohs built their tombs away from tomb robbers, believing that they would be resurrected in the afterlife in the same way that the sun dies every day in the West and is born again in the East.

The most notable tomb is that of the child king Tutankhamun, followed by the Temple of Hatshepsut, the first female ruler to have such a massive temple named after her. Continue to view the massive sculptures of Amenhotep III seated in majesty, called the Colossi of Memnon. You will then be driven to a hotel in Hurghada for the night.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 9: Free Day in Hurghada

Enjoy an open-buffet breakfast at the hotel and spend a beautiful day in Hurghada. Alternatively, you may go snorkeling at Mahmya Island. Choose from our several Hurghada trips by clicking the link.
