Day 1: Arrival Day

Upon your arrival at Cairo International Airport, we will welcome you and take you to a 5-star hotel. In the evening, spend this first day lounging in your room as preparation for the impending trip that will be beyond words. Every good thing has an ending that in this case signifies the commencement of your vacation. This is again the time that has seen many people whose zeal for their missions is at its highest, that spirit of I want to go now because there is so much to see on Egypt tours.

day 2: Cairo tour

On day two of the itinerary, have your breakfast at the hotel then meet up with our knowledgeable tour guide to escort you to the first destination which is :

The Great Pyramid of Giza complex and the Sphinx.

One of the seven-wonders of the world, the 3 pyramids belonging to the 3 known kings and the queen's pyramids with the menacing great sphinx build purely to frighten enemies with its enormous build esp at particular periods of the night.

Then you will board a motor vehicle that will drive you to a place where lunch will be served. Then shift to another location which is:

The Egyptian Museum.

As a result of its expansiveness and a wide variety of artifacts, it is the biggest museum in the Middle East. It is where you can see some of the ancient Egyptians kings' coffins. Later on, you will be taken on a short tour around for some shopping.

And after that, returning back to the hotel by the A/C car for an overnight stay.

day 3: Luxor attractions.

On the third day of your Christmas tour from Cairo to Luxor, you will have to repack your luggage in the morning, having checked out of the hotel and served breakfast, where you will board a vehicle provided by the hotel to the Cairo International Airport after all the baggage was checked in. However, upon arrivals at the Luxor international airport, the Luxor attractions start with the visits of:

The Karnak temple:

This temple is also one of the most frequented tourist attractions composed of four sections but majorly the first section is the most congested and the other three sections are much smaller temples. It is because it gives a beautiful insight into the development of the Egyptian empires

Luxor temple:

This is towards the east of the Nile River on her bank, many kings participated during the process of building, the first known king who started building it is Amenhotep III.

The last altar we have for your cherishment is that of Hatshepsut temple.

Visit and book this tour to discover who built this massive structure that was completed over 15 long years ago. More information on this temple and its builders will also be available.

Enjoy your lunch at one of the eastern cuisine restaurants in Luxor, afterwards, prepare yourself for another return trip to your hotel using the comfortable vehicle.

For you to pass the night with good decorations of a bed.

day 4: Back to Cairo

On the 4th day of the trip and the final day of the trek, after waking up very early in the morning, make sure to get your bags packed for the last and final time and also get ready to proceed to the Luxor International Airport by the AC car to take a flight back to, Cairo.
